Moscow, U.S.S.R.

Dear Dr. Tkachenko:

Enclosed are ^{four} five copies of papers I gave in Virginia and Paris. The page references on the covers refer to questions raised by Mr. Klim, Mr. Kleiner and Mr. Sinitski at that last working meeting in the Hall of the Moscow City Council. I would appreciate it very much if you would forward copies of these reports to these gentlemen.

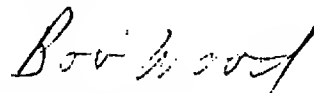

I am also enclosing a copy of Transportation Research Record Number 496 for your use. I had earlier given a copy of this document to Professor Kerov.

Here, also, are some photographs which I had the privilege of taking in and around Moscow and Leningrad. I am truly sorry that I did not have the opportunity of taking any of you or Mrs. Tkachenko. Perhaps you would be good enough to distribute these, too, to the proper recipients.

Finally, down at the South Street Seaport the other day (this is near Sweet's Restaurant, which I believe you visited), I found the enclosed copy of a book by Jack London - obviously written before he was able to buy the "Snark," and go to sea in style. I thought that perhaps Mrs. Tkachenko might like it, as a fan of Jack London.

Warmest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Robert T. Wood
